

Bookmaking With Kids: Summer Camp 2009

For Teachers, Librarians & Everyone Who Works with Kids

Discover ideas and inspiration for a whole year of imaginative teaching at our Summer Bookmaking Camp 2009. These specially priced classes—just $40 per session—are for teachers, librarians, principals and arts educators. They focus principally on grades K–8. But several are appropriate for preschool and high-school teachers, too. And every workshop gives you instantly usable projects, easy-to-follow instructions, and convincing evidence that making books with students is a fun and effective way of nurturing literacy and artistic expression across all areas of the curriculum.

Summer Bookmaking Camp 2009 takes place at the beautiful new Redwood Shores Public Library, easily reached from San Francisco, the Peninsula and the East Bay.

You can download a flyer with complete descriptions plus registration form by visiting us online at www.bookmakingwithkids.com. Please watch our web site for a series of Summer Camp posts with details on each workshop and lots of photos. Got questions? Want more details? Need help deciding which classes will suit you best? Get fast, knowledgeable answers by sending an email to cathy@miranker.com.

Monday June 22

All classes from 9 a.m.–1 p.m.
Choose one:

Books from a Single Sheet of Paper
Grades 1 & Up

Fun With Collaborative Books
Grades 3 & Up

Phenomenal Pop-Ups
Grades 2 & Up

Tuesday June 23

All classes from 11:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.
Choose one:

More Books from a Single Sheet
Grades 2 & Up

Bookmaking for Events
All Grades

Paper Decorating for Bookmaking
Grades 2 & Up

Wednesday June 24

All classes from 1–5 p.m.
Choose one:

Room to Write
Grades 4 & Up

Bookmaking with Envelopes
Grades 3 & Up

Paper Decorating for Bookmaking
Grades 2 & Up

Thursday June 25

All classes from 1:30–5:30 p.m.
Choose one:

Books for Budding Scientists
Grades 2 & Up

Easy-To-Make Japanese Books
Grades 2 & Up

The Littlest Bookmakers
Preschool–Grade 1

Friday June 26

All classes from 9 a.m.–1 p.m.
Choose one:

Maps, Maps, Maps!
Grades 3 & Up

Teeny, Tiny Printmaking
Grades 3 & Up

For complete descriptions, please visit www.bookmakingwithkids.com

